

A fashion show presentation featuring three models standing against two distinct floral backdrops. The model on the left, a Black woman, wears a black and white floral print two-piece outfit and a matching headwrap, positioned in front of a black background with large white line-art leaves. The two models on the right, a white woman and an Asian woman, stand in front of a blue background with large pink line-art flowers. They are wearing a bright pink long-sleeved dress with a ruffled side and a bright yellow sleeveless dress, respectively. A semi-transparent grey bar at the bottom left contains the brand name.
